foreword

I have known a word more gentle
Than the breath of summer air;
In a listening heart it nestled,
And it lived forever there;
Not the beating of its prison
Stirr'd it ever, night or day;
Only with the heart's last throbbing
Could it fade away.

—Adelaide Anne Procter

In choosing words as our theme for our 1947-48 LION, we preserve for you in print and picture a record of your friends, activities, and experiences on the campus of the East Mississippi Junior College.

It is said that each person must ultimately live by his own words. May the happiness, romance, and lasting memories of this school year be expressed and recalled by the ten most beautiful words in the English language as compiled by Wilfred J. Funk:

Dawn
Hush
Lullaby
Murmuring
Tranquil
Mist
Luminous
Chimes
Golden
Melody

—The Editor

DEDICATION

As a visible evidence of our recognition and appreciation of him who, through his tolerance, wisdom, unfailing energy, and dignity of manner, has made us conscious of the highest ideals and has given us noblest aims, we, the members of the annual staff of the East Mississippi Junior College, respectfully and sincerely dedicate this, the 1948 volume of THE LION, to our staunch friend and proficient instructor

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

There has never been in the history of our country so great an opportunity for the college and university students of our land. When and where would you find as many college students on campuses who have had the experiences as you have had? You have seen peoples living under different types of government with all types of leadership. You have seen nations rise and fall.

The responsibility in the leadership of this government and this country will be yours by 1960. We know what you can do under stress of war. . . . now demonstrate to the world what you can do in peace.

To those responsible for this yearbook, we express our thanks for the presentation of college life. May each one of you, led by the Master Teacher, find happiness and success!

Sincerely,
Cruce Stark

BOYS' BASKETBALL

This has been a great year in basketball for the E. M. J. C. boys. With the excellent coaching of Coach Pressley, the team won ten games out of sixteen and played four very good tournament games before being defeated by four points by Moorhead.

Placed on the All-State team was Pap Pressley. Boyd Hill was on All-State second team, and Junior Smith was on the Honorable Mention list.

We hope E. M. J. C. will be represented as well next year as it was this season.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Manager, Veda Jones, Virginia Rutledge, Kathrine Clark, Hazel Eaves, Margaret Cain, Kate Caldwell, Coach Bill Pressley, Jean Rosenbaum, Eula Mae Mitchell, Dorothy Hamilton, Janiece Montgomery, Janelle Parker, Juanita Riddle

An unforgettable basketball season has passed. E. M. J. C. is very proud of the little girls who fought so courageously and won nine out of fifteen games played this year. The team played four games in the tournament but was eliminated by a two point margin by Hinds.

Juanita Riddle as forward and Janelle Parker as guard were placed on the All-State team. On the Honorable Mention list were Jean Rosenbaum and Janiece Parker Montgomery.

Treasured Memories

Your yearbook is a store of treasured memories. The oft repeated thrill of recollection which accompanies each new search through its pages will many times repay you for the care and consideration which has gone into its creation.

We are publishing 1948 Annuals for more than 900 Colleges and High Schools. This patronage indicates a wealth of ideas and service which has no doubt made possible the long record of our school annual achievement.
